

WYCOMBE Wanderers' scheduled Rothmans Isthmian League game tonight (Tuesday), away to Staines Town, has been postponed.

Staines were involved in the Middlesex Senior Cup on Saturday, being held to a 1-1 draw by Athenian League side Hounslow. The replay is being played at Wheatsheaf Lane tonight.

The Blues have not arranged an alternative game and this will give many of the players another chance to rest their injuries. Their next game is the all-important league clash against Dagenham, at Loakes Park on Saturday.

QUEEN'S Park Rangers, second to Liverpool in Division One after Saturday, have been forced to postpone their visit to Wycombe Wanderers tomorrow (Wednesday). The teams were due to meet in a friendly.

Rangers have two important matches this week. Tomorrow they visit Leicester City for a league game and their Youth team is also involved in a cup match. As Rangers wanted to send down a strong side to meet the Blues, they decided to postpone the match.

They will still be coming to Loakes Park later in the season, however, and will be giving Wycombe three dates to rearrange the fixture.
